摘要

長久以來，許多國家為了實現教育機會之公平性而採取不收學費、提供大量生活資助的方式，如：英國、德國、丹麥、芬蘭等國家採取上述措施，來增加低收入階層子女與全體國民接受高等教育的機會；然而，隨著高等教育規模迅速擴張，政府財政不堪重負，只能以減緩高等教育發展速度、刪減學生資助等方式以維持現況。因此，許多歐陸國家也開始藉由收取學費來維持學習品質，大學收費成為社會共識。但是要如何訂定合理的收費標準學？如何才能保障弱勢家庭的學生也能有機會得到補助，讓他們在求學期間生活上獲得一定條件？因此，在收取學費的同時，如何為低收入階層子女提供就學資助，以保障教育機會均等，也成為各國高等教育政策的重要焦點。本文旨在探討台灣與美、英等國，其政府經營管理高等教育之主要策略，尤其當各國
A Study of University Tuition Fee in Taiwan
Chuing Prudence Chou

In order to provide equal educational opportunities to all students regardless of their backgrounds, many higher education institutions in Europe did not charge any tuition fee in the first place. Not until the shrinking public finance taken place across many countries, did universities started charging tuition fees to a great extent to maintain learning quality. However, countries such as: United Kingdom, Germany, Denmark, Finland attempted to provide a number of living subsidy, stipends, scholarships and student loans to offset the rising university expenses, and assist those low-income students. While university tuition fees become inevitable, how government can provide students at disadvantage with sufficient financial support has become an important focus in higher education policy. This article aims to examine governmental management and administration of higher education tuition policy in Taiwan, the United States, and Britain with an emphasis on major strategies and matching measures when facing declining higher education funding.

Key words: higher education, international comparison of tuition fee.
